To whom it may concern:

I wouldn't be on the path I am now to my future career in photography and filmmaking if it wasn't for Veronika and Lennon.

They gave me the idea and opportunity to take photos and videos for riders at the Being and Healing With Horses riding stables as a full-time job, and it was when their youngest horse fell from a cliff and showed a chance of full recovery that my passion for filmmaking was realized.

They've also taught me everything I know about horses. I had absolutely no experience or knowledge whatsoever until I met them, but now I feel confident about working with these animals wherever I may go.

I will be forever grateful for all that they've done for me. They gave me a future, a new purpose in life, one that I'd probably still be searching for if it wasn't for them.

Yours truly
